

Rosalind Kress Haley Collection

Series IV Norman Dodd

1 Linear Foot

2 Boxes, 11 Folders

Summary: Contains correspondence with various individuals; Foundations materials including Norman Dodd's writings; conservative pamphlets and bulletins; Roman Catholic and Sons of the American Revolution materials. The time span is 1950s – 1960s.

The following inventory indicates general topics, but folders contain additional material.

Box Folder

- | | | |
|-----|---|---|
| 141 | 1 | Barradas, George—
Memoranda; 1962-66 |
| 141 | 2 | Correspondence with the American Economic Foundation; 1950s |
| 141 | 3 | Correspondence with Frank A. French, artist Ellyn Lake (N. Dodd's secretary); 1960s |
| 141 | 4 | Correspondence with Frank A. French, artist Ellyn Lake (N. Dodd's secretary);
1950s- 60s |
| 141 | 5 | Correspondence with Charles W. Thomas; 1960s |
| 142 | 1 | Correspondence with various individuals
(Mrs. Claire de Hedervary, Mrs. Howard C. Christy, publishers); 1950s, 60s |
| 142 | 2 | Foundations—
Tax Exempt Foundations- Norman's writings, What Are We Going To Do About It?,
correspondence, newsletter, Congressional record; 1950s, 60s |
| 142 | 3 | Herald of Freedom; 1963-64 |
| 142 | 4 | Miscellaneous Conservative—
Pamphlet (A Catholic Layman Talks Back to a Priest), bulletins,
Canadian Intelligence Service, correspondence (Hon. Edgar W. Hiestand); 1956-62 |
| 142 | 5 | Roman Catholic File—
Catholic Freedom Foundation, The American Coalition, Catholic School System in
New York; 1950s, 60s |
| 142 | 6 | Sons of the American Revolution—
Correspondence, commemorative program 175th anniversary of Constitution Day
(NY chapter, Sept 17, 1962), invitations, Why "Ike" is as he is; 1962-64 |